This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the European Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (European Directive 2011/61/EU) (the “AIFMD”) as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. Accordingly, you should not use this document for any other purpose.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA and United Kingdom Retail Investors

In addition to the restrictions under the AIFMD, the units of ITOCHU Advance Logistics Investment Corporation (“IAL” or the “AIF”) are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the “EEA”) or the United Kingdom. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU, as amended (the “MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended (the “Prospectus Regulation”). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014, or the PRIIPs Regulation, for offering or selling the units of IAL or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA or the United Kingdom has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the units of IAL, or otherwise making them available, to any retail investor in the EEA or the United Kingdom may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

United Kingdom

The units of IAL are being marketed in the United Kingdom pursuant to Article 59 of the United Kingdom Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013. In accordance with this provision, ITOCHU REIT Management Co., Ltd. (the “AIFM”) has notified the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”) of its intention to offer these units in the United Kingdom. For the purposes of the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“FSMA”) IAL is an unregulated collective investment scheme which has not been authorized by the FCA. Accordingly, any communications of an invitation or inducement to invest in IAL may be made only to: (i) investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended, or the Order; (ii) high net worth companies, unincorporated associations or other entities falling within Articles 49(2)(a) to (d) of the Order (all such persons referred to under (i) and (ii) of this paragraph, together being referred to as “Relevant Persons”). In the United Kingdom, this document and its contents are directed only at Relevant Persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not Relevant Persons. Any person who is not a Relevant Person may not act or rely on this document or any of its contents. The transmission of this document and its contents in the United Kingdom to any person other than a Relevant Person is unauthorized and may contravene the FSMA and other United Kingdom securities laws and regulations.

European Economic Area and United Kingdom Investors

The AIFMD was adopted on June 8, 2011 and was required to be implemented by each Member State of the EEA into its national legislation by July 22, 2013. The units of IAL may not be marketed (within the meaning given to the term “marketing” under the AIFMD), and the Communication may not be conducted, to prospective investors domiciled or with a registered office in any Member State of the EEA or the United Kingdom unless: (i) the units of IAL may be marketed under any national private placement regime (including under the AIFMD) or other exemption in that Member State or the United Kingdom (as applicable); or (ii) the units of IAL can otherwise be lawfully marketed or sold in that Member State or the United Kingdom (as applicable) in circumstances in which the AIFMD does not apply, provided that any such offer or sale is not made to a retail investor as described above. We have made a notification to each of the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets and the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority pursuant to Article 42 of the AIFMD in order to market the units of IAL in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom, respectively.

Netherlands

The units of ITOCHU Advance Logistics Investment Corporation (“IAL” or the “AIF”) are being marketed in the Netherlands under Section 1:13b of the Netherlands Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht, or the “Wft”). In accordance with this provision, ITOCHU REIT Management Co., Ltd. (the “AIFM”) has notified the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (Autoriteit Financiële Markten, the “AFM”) of its intention to offer these units in the Netherlands. The units of IAL will not, directly or indirectly, be offered, sold, transferred or delivered in the Netherlands, except to or by individuals or entities that are qualified investors (gekwalficeerde beleggers) within the meaning of Article 1:1 of the Wft, and as a consequence neither the AIFM nor IAL is subject to the license requirement pursuant to the Wft. Consequently, neither the AIFM nor IAL is subject to supervision of the Dutch Central Bank (De Nederlandsche Bank, “DNB”) and the AFM. This Article 23 AIFMD Prospectus is not subject to approval by the AFM. No approved prospectus is required to be published in the Netherlands pursuant to Article 3 of the Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the “Prospectus Regulation”) as amended and applicable in the Netherlands. The AIFM is therefore solely subject to limited ongoing regulatory requirements as referred to in Article 42 of the AIFMD.

Article 23 (1)(a)
Objectives of the AIF	ITOCHU Advance Logistics Investment Corporation (“IAL” or the “AIF”) is a REIT focusing primarily on logistics facilities and aims to secure stable earnings over the medium to long term.
Investment strategy	IAL’s basic strategy is to build “collaborative growth relationships” with the ITOCHU Group, at the core of which is ITOCHU Corporation, one of the leading general trading companies with particular strengths in consumer-related businesses. IAL’s external growth strategy is to take advantage of the preferential negotiation rights it enjoys under sponsor support agreements with ITOCHU Corporation and ITOCHU Property Development, Ltd., to access the ITOCHU Group’s customer network and its expertise in land purchase, development, and leasing in the field of logistics real estate. In this way, IAL aims to secure opportunities for property acquisition and further diversify and solidify its portfolio. IAL’s portfolio strategies, with respect to investments in locations, are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Within the Kanto and Kansai areas, IAL’s investments are focused on locations with demand for logistics facilities due to their proximity to production sites where goods originate and at major consumer sites and locations chosen for their convenient transportation connections, including good access to major roads and expressways that allow logistical coverage of wide areas. • IAL’s investments are targeted at areas that satisfy a certain level of population concentration, with consideration also given to commuter access by transportation so that tenant businesses can attract and retain staff. • For facilities tailored to tenant specifications, IAL’s investments are targeted at rigorously selected locations that meet the particular tenant’s location strategy and are also likely to attract future tenants.
Types of assets the AIF may invest in	Real estate, trust beneficiary interests in real estate.
Techniques it may employ and all associated risks	The principal risks with respect to investment in IAL are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • any adverse conditions in the Japanese economy could adversely affect IAL; • most of the properties in the portfolio are concentrated in the Kanto area and the Kansai area; • IAL may not be able to acquire properties to execute the growth and investment strategy in a manner that is accretive to earnings;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • illiquidity in the real estate market may limit the ability to grow or adjust the portfolio; • IAL's reliance on the AIFM and other third service providers could have a material adverse effect on business; • there are potential conflicts of interest between IAL and IAL's related parties, including the AIFM; • IAL's revenues largely comprise leasing revenues from the portfolio properties, which may be negatively affected by vacancies, decreases in rent, and late or missed payments by tenants; • IAL faces significant competition in seeking tenants and it may be difficult to find replacement tenants; • increases in prevailing market interest rates may increase interest expense and may result in a decline in the market price of IAL's units; • IAL may suffer large losses if any of the properties incurs damage from a natural or man-made disaster; • any inability to obtain financing for future acquisitions could adversely affect the growth of the portfolio; • IAL's failure to satisfy a complex series of requirements pursuant to Japanese tax regulations would disqualify IAL from certain taxation benefits and significantly reduce the cash distributions to the unitholders; and • ownership rights in some of IAL's properties may be declared invalid or limited. In addition, IAL is subject to the following risks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • risks related to increasing operating costs; • risks related to IAL's dependence on the efforts of the AIFM's key personnel; • risk that distributions to unitholders may be lower than expected • risk of dilution to unitholders due to additional issuances of units; • risk of delinquent payment or nonpayment by IAL on its investment corporation bonds; • risks of concentrating investment properties on logistics properties; • risks related to entering into forward commitment contracts; • risks related to holding the property in the form of co-ownership interests (kyōyū- mochibun); • risks related to holding the property through trust beneficiary interests; • risks related to properties not in operation (including properties under development); • risks related to ownership of land only where buildings are owned by

	third parties; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • risks related to the defective title, design, construction or other defects or problems in the properties; • risks related to impairment losses relating to the properties; • risks related to tenant leasehold deposits and/or security deposits; • risks related to tenants' default as a result of financial difficulty or insolvency; • risks related to the insolvency of master lessors; • risks arising from leased properties being subleased, such as the inability to select sublessees and rental revenue being adversely affected by the sublessee's economic situation; • risks related to reserved land (horyu-chi) based on land readjustment law (Japanese law "Tochi kukaku seiri hou"); • risks arising from the purchaser's warranty against IAL with respect to defects in any property IAL sells to the purchaser; • risks related to relying on expert appraisals and engineering, environmental and seismic reports as well as industry and market data; • risks related to the presence of hazardous or toxic substances in the properties, or the failure to properly remediate such substances; • risks related to strict environmental liabilities for the properties; • risks related to the amendment of applicable administrative laws and local ordinances; • risks related to holding Japanese anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests; • risks related to investment in trust beneficiary interests; • risks related to investment in real estate-based securities; • risks related to the tight supervision by regulatory authorities and compliance with applicable rules and regulations; • risks related to being unable to benefit from reductions in certain real estate taxes enjoyed by qualified J-REITs; and • risks related to changes in Japanese tax laws.
Any applicable investment restrictions	IAL is subject to investment restrictions under Japanese laws and regulations (e.g., the Act on Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations (the "ITA"), the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (the "FIEA")) as well as its articles of incorporation. IAL must invest primarily in specified assets as defined in the ITA. Specified assets include, but are not limited to, securities, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights (chijō-ken) (i.e., right to use land for the purpose of having a structure on it) or trust beneficiary interests

	for securities or real estate, leaseholds of real estate or surface rights. A listed J-REIT must invest substantially all of its assets in real estate, real estate-related assets and liquid assets as provided by the listing requirements. Real estate in this context includes, but is not limited to, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights, and trust beneficiary interests for these assets, and real estate-related assets in this context include, but are not limited to, anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests for investment in real estate. Pursuant to the ITA, investment corporations may not independently develop land for housing or to construct buildings, but may outsource such activities in certain circumstances.
Circumstances in which the AIF may use leverage	IAL may take out loans or issue long- or short-term corporate bonds for the purpose of investing in properties, conducting repairs and paying distributions, as well as for operating capital and repaying debt (including security deposits, other debt and bonds).
The types and sources of leverage permitted and associated risks	Loans or investment corporation bonds. Loans or investment corporation bonds in which IAL enters or IAL issues may be subject to restrictive covenants in connection with any future indebtedness that may restrict operations and limit its ability to make cash distributions to unitholders, to dispose of properties or to acquire additional properties. Furthermore, if IAL were to violate such restrictive covenants, such as with regard to loan-to-value ratios, lenders may be entitled to require IAL to collateralize portfolio properties or demand that the entire outstanding balance be paid. In the event of an increase in interest rates, to the extent that IAL has any debt with unhedged floating rates of interest or IAL incurs new debt, interest payments may increase, which in turn could reduce the amount of cash available for distributions to unitholders. Higher interest rates may also limit the capacity for short- and long-term borrowings, which would in turn limit IAL's ability to acquire properties, and could cause the market price of the units to decline.
Any restrictions on leverage	The maximum amount of total loan and total corporate bond issuance will be ¥1 trillion respectively, and the aggregate amount of all such debt will not exceed ¥1 trillion.
Any restrictions on collateral and asset reuse arrangements	No applicable arrangements.
Maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of the AIF	As a general rule, IAL will maintain a conservative loan-to-value, or LTV, ratio, which is the ratio of (x) the aggregate principal amount of borrowings and investment corporation bonds to (y) the total assets of IAL's portfolio. IAL has set 60% as its maximum LTV ratio; however, IAL's LTV ratio may fluctuate as a result of property acquisitions or other events.

Article 23(1) (b)
Procedure by which the AIF may change its investment strategy / investment policy	Amendment of the articles of incorporation. Amendment requires a quorum of a majority of the total issued units and at least a two-thirds vote of the voting rights represented at the meeting. Unitholders should note, however that under the ITA and IAL's articles of incorporation, unitholders who do not attend and exercise their voting rights at a general meeting of unitholders are deemed to be in agreement with proposals submitted at the meeting, except in cases where contrary proposals are also being submitted. Additionally, the guidelines of the AIFM, which provide more detailed policies within IAL's overall investment strategy and policy, can be modified without such formal amendment of the articles of incorporation.
Article 23(1) (c)
Description of the main legal implications of the contractual relationship entered into for the purpose of investment, including jurisdiction, applicable law, and the existence or not of any legal instruments providing for the recognition and enforcement of judgments in the territory where the AIF is established	IAL has entered into the following agreements with third service providers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sponsor Support Agreement / Leasing Management Agreement with ITOCHU Corporation and ITOCHU REIT Management Co., Ltd.; • Trademark Licensing Agreement / Trust Beneficiary Rights Sales Agreement with ITOCHU Corporation; • Sponsor Support Agreement with ITOCHU Property Development, Ltd. and ITOCHU REIT Management Co., Ltd.; and • Master Lease agreement / Property Management Outsourcing Agreement with ITOCHU Urban Community Ltd. and ITOCHU REIT Management Co., Ltd. All of the above agreements are governed by Japanese law. IAL is not involved in or threatened by any legal arbitration, administrative or other proceedings, the results of which might, individually or in the aggregate, be material. IAL is a corporate-type investment trust in the form of investment corporation (toshi hojin) provided for under the ITA. Therefore, the relationship between IAL and its unitholders is governed by IAL's articles of incorporation (as opposed to individual agreements), which can be amended from time to time upon resolution of a general unitholders' meeting. IAL's articles of incorporation stipulate rules relating to general unitholders meetings, including the convocation, setting of record date, exercise of voting rights, resolutions and election of IAL's directors. The relationship between IAL and its unitholders is also governed by, and is subject to the provisions of, Japanese law, including the ITA. The courts in Japan would recognize as a valid and final judgment any final and conclusive civil judgment for monetary claims (which, for this purpose, are limited to those of a purely civil nature and do not include monetary claims of the nature of criminal or administrative sanction, such as punitive damages, even though they take the form of civil claims)

	against IAL obtained in a foreign court provided that (i) the jurisdiction of such foreign court is admitted under the laws of Japan, (ii) IAL has received service of process for the commencement of the relevant proceedings, otherwise than by a public notice or any method comparable thereto, or has appeared without any reservation before such foreign court, (iii) neither such judgment nor the relevant proceeding is repugnant to public policy as applied in Japan, and (iv) there exists reciprocity as to the recognition by such foreign court of a final judgment obtained in a Japanese court and (v) there is no conflicting judgement on the subject matter by any Japanese court.
Article 23(1) (d)
